Girls' Athletic Society

This year's Girls' Athletic Society was presided over by Elaine Chadbourne, president; Yemiko Nishimura, vice president; and June Perry, secretary-treasurer.

There has been quite a large number of girls who have earned membership in the G.A.S. through their active participation in baseball, basketball, volleyball, and soccer. The managers of the various sports were Shirley Mangels, basketball; Marjorie Ridenhour, baseball; Katherine Stell, minor sports; Ida Osada, soccer; and Terry Hoshizaki, volleyball.

The initiation was held on April 23 with the following girls being admitted into the G.A.S.: Helen Flores, Dorothy Goncalves, Rose Flores, Thelma Thompson, Sally Woodard, Doris Anderson, Dorene Siebe, Carley Richardson, and Mildred Lawrence.

No playday was given by Armijo, but the girls attended one given by Vacaville at the beginning of the term.

Before one is admitted into the G.A.S. one must acquire 250 points for which she receives a numeral; when a member has the total of 500 points a small felt A is given; for 900 points Block "A"; for 1350 points a gold "A" pin.

Block "A" Society

The Block A Society is composed of the best athletes in Armijo Union High School. In order to qualify for membership, a boy must have fulfilled the requirements of earning the Block A in football, basketball, track, field, or tennis; he must have the recommendation of the principal and coach for membership and be either a Sophomore, Junior, or Senior.

This school year the Block A Society was further rejuvenated under the leadership of Coach Ed Hopkins. First, they revised the constitution. Secondly, they have had more meetings and more entertainments than in the past. One of the best was perhaps the "Defense Stamp" dance which the boys put on in cooperation with the Girl Scouts during the latter part of the spring semester.

The officers for the year were: Jim Perez, President; Jim DeTar, Vice President; Ralph Sheldon, Secretary; and Bud Dodge, Board of Control.

Drama

Junior dramatics had an unusually active season presenting four one act plays and a Christmas pageant. The following plays were given the first semester:

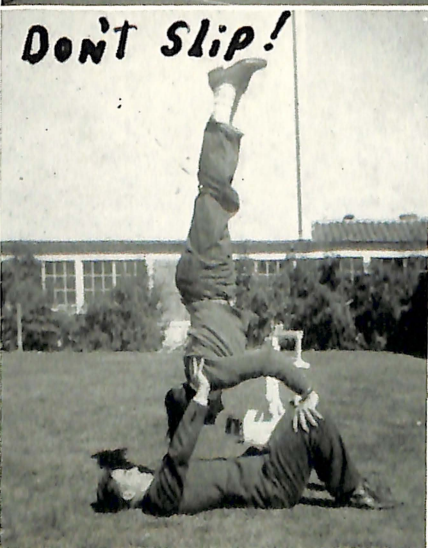

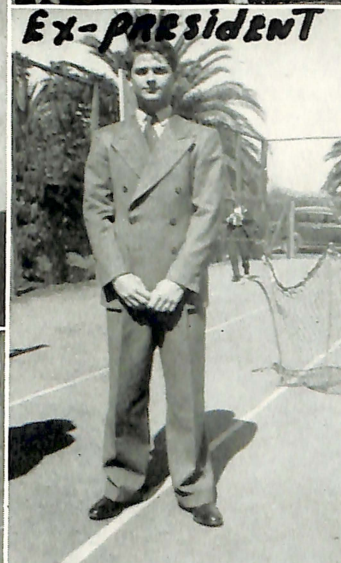

"The First Dress Suit," "A Fish and a Unicorn," "Two Crooks and a Lady," "The Woman Who Understood Men," "In the Light of the Star."

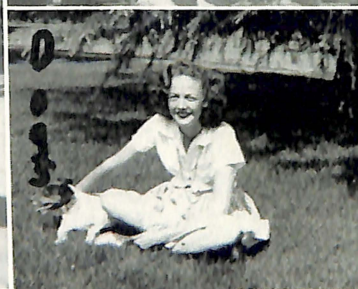

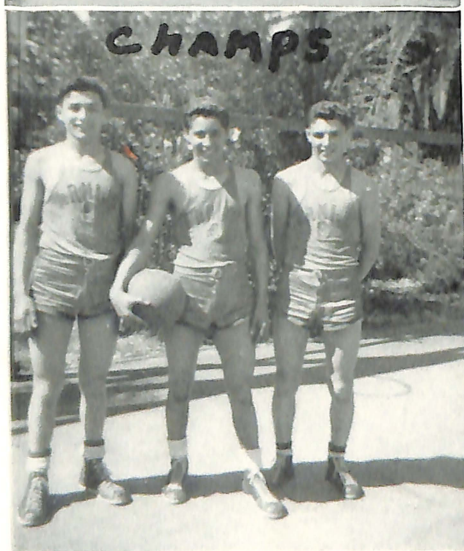

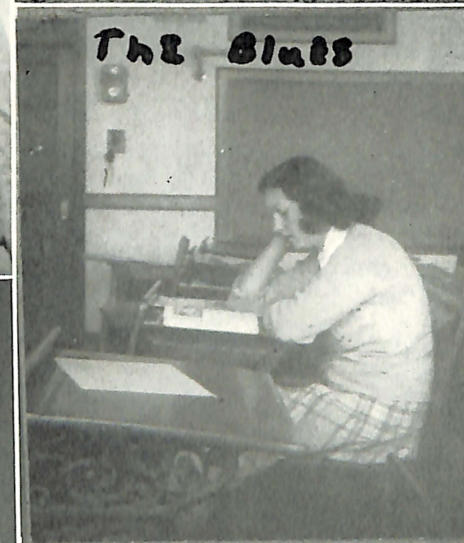

The following students participated in these plays: Dick Ragle, Jimmy DeTar, Cathy Avila, Eleanor Jean Burrell, Elaine

"Ever Since Eve," a clever comedy of youth, was chosen as the Senior play with the following cast:

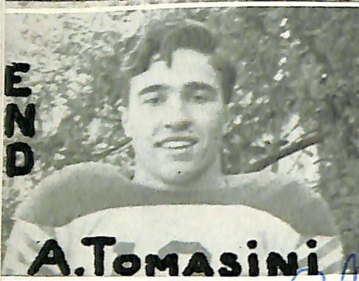

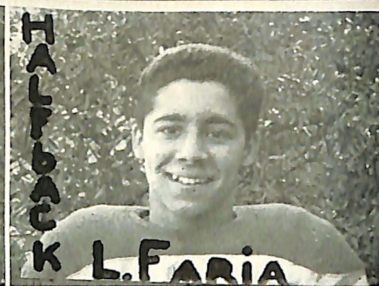

Mrs. Clover	Elaine Chadbourne

Spud Erwin	Homer Burrell
Susan Blake	Louise Morris
Betsy Erwin	Betty Garben

ATHLETICS

FOOTBALL

Having one of the largest turnouts in its history, the Armijo Indians, under the supervision of Coaches Ed Hopkins and Wes Alt with their new "T" formation, had a rather impressive season in 1941, winning 3, losing 2, and tying 1, and scoring 69 points to their opponents 37.

In their last league game of the season with Vacaville, Armijo completely outclassed the Bulldogs but were unable to do better than tie 6-6.

A flip of a coin was the deciding factor as to which team was to represent the South Section in the County Play-off. Vacaville won.

In the play-off for the Solano County Championship, Vacaville was defeated by Courtland 18-0.

Here is a summary on the games played by Armijo:

6—ARMIJO

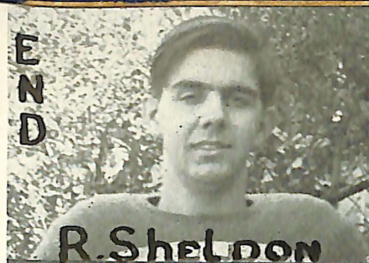

CROCKETT—13

In their opener of the season, Armijo was completely outclassed by Crockett who had already played 3 games. The Bay boys took a lead in the first quarter, on a blocked kick and were never seriously headed by the Indians. Feature play of the day was by Mike Gonzales who ran a punt back 55 yards for Armijo's only score.

12—ARMIJO

ST. HELENA—0

After playing a nip and tuck contest in the first half, the Armijo Indians came through with 2 scores to defeat St. Helena by the score 12-0 at St. Helena. This was Armijo's only night game, and was something different for the boys. Despite this, the Indians looked very good.

25—ARMIJO VALLEJO RAMBLERS—0

Still fighting hard after their win from St. Helena, the Indians walked over a sloppy Apache team. Scores were made on long runs by Guido Colla and Mike Gonzales. Coach Hopkins seemed very pleased with their performance as their opener with Rio Vista was to be played the following week.

14—ARMIJO RIO VISTA—0

Brilliant defensive and offensive playing by the Armijo Indians proved too much as Armijo defeated the highly touted Rio Vistans by a score of 14-0 in their league opener. The Indians, in winning this game knocked Rio Vista out of the league race to go into a tie with Vacaville. Larry Miller who proved himself the star of the day, played his last game for Armijo. Larry moved to Long Beach.

6—ARMIJO VACAVILLE—6

These two teams tied for the championship of Southern Section of the S.C.A.L.

Although both schools get pennants, Vacaville represented the South Section in the playoff with Courtland by a flip of a coin. In this game, Armijo was within the Vacaville 20 yard line 3 times, and had they been using touch credits as in years past Armijo would have been the Champs.

6—ARMIJO

WINTERS—18

With many Seniors playing their last game of the Season on Armistice Day, Armijo played their worst game of the season and were defeated 18 to 6. Those playing their last game were: Sheldon, Engell, DeTar, Scally, Colla, Sequiera, Moiseff.

Girls' Minor Sports

With Miss Bean as the new physical education teacher, the 1941-42 sports season was played enthusiastically by everyone. All girls helped to make this season a success.

Baseball opened the season which was managed by Marjorie Ridenhour. Inter-class games were played after school. This year, the Juniors won the baseball championship after a hard fought game with the Seniors.

After the inter-class games had been played, a Varsity Team and an All-Star Team were chosen by Miss Bean and Marjorie Ridenhour. Girls who made the Varsity were: Ida Osada, Dorothy Gonçalves, Heda Maeyama, Elise Lewis, Leola Waggoner, Vangie Alameda, Katherine Stell, Dorene Siebe, Marjorie Ridenhour, Pat Stell, Betty Cunningham, and Matilda Thompson. The All-Star team consisted of Yolanda Elmo, Elaine Chadbourne, Terry Hoshizaki, Dorothy Furtado, Mary Lindner, Norma Cherimisin, Doris Rose, Carley Richardson, Yemiko Nishimura, Veleta Jones, and Emi Mori.

The next sport played was basketball.

Shirley Mangels, manager, and Miss Bean picked the class teams from the four gym classes. All teams played two rounds, the Seniors winning the championship with no defeat. The Varsity Team and an All-Star Team were chosen. Peggy Nagle, Emi Mori, Elaine Chadbourne, Ida Osada, Vangie Alameda, Pat Stell, Jean Jackaville, Shirley Mangels, Margaret Ot-suji, and Amy Uchimoto made the Varsity. Dorothy Gonçalves, Norma Cherimisin, Terry Hoshizaki, Yemiko Nishimura, Matilda Thompson, Heda Maeyama, Dorene Siebe, Yolanda Elmo, Sally Woodard, and Doris Anderson made the All-Star team.

For the first time, badminton was very popular among the girls. Tournaments were played, Katherine Stell winning the championship. She was followed closely by Matilda Thompson. Other minor sports played were croquet, horseshoes, and table tennis, under the management of Katherine Stell.

Managers for the other sports were: Terry Hoshizaki, volleyball; and Ida Osada, soccer.

Class Prophecy

May 30, 1962

Dear Diary:

Today I returned to the dear scenes of my childhood, the corner fountain, the fruit shed, and the tules. And to my delight and surprise, the first old classmate I saw was Bud Dodge with his wife and seven boys. Bud now runs an exclusive dress shop next to the tracks. His wife, the former Venita Lumpkin, does all Bud's designing for him. I was quite happy to see Bud so contented. As I stood there, wondering where I should go to eat lunch, Edwin Burrell and Manuel Rozadilla walked by, and recognizing me with no trouble at all, insisted that I have lunch with them. Over a hot chop at Ruth Hall's Banquet I learned that Ed and Manuel are the proud owners of Fairfield's largest, finest, and only Second Hand Store.

As I left the boys, I decided to walk through the residential district. Who should I see at work washing clothes but Doris Headlee who is doing housework for Bill Scally's wife, the former Olivia Muzio. Doris' engagement was broken when Charles Venning decided he preferred "the wild west" to settling down.

Norma Cherimisin inherited a large fortune from an unknown uncle and is now touring the world. It is rumored that Dwight Woodard is pursuing her, just for her money! Dwight is selling Fuller brushes. Patricia Donovan and Margaret Nagle are running a boarding house in Suisun.

Jim Perez is now coach at Armijo. And wonders of wonders a new, improved school is standing on the site of the old school. It seems Betty Garben burned down the old school but she escaped to New York and is now married to the Multi-millionaire Homer Burrell.

Ralph Sheldon and Jim DeTar turned out to be first class hobos touring the country on freight trains, because the girl they both loved, Matilda Thompson, threw over both of them to become the blushing bride of Bill McGinnis.

Bob Erickson is a sergeant in the Naval Reserve and is selling insurance on the side to keep up alimony payments—all seven of them.

Don Glashoff is Mayor of Cordelia and his wife, Betty Cunningham, gave up a promising career in the theatre to settle down to the peaceful life with the chickens, cows, and Don.

Yolanda Elmo has changed her name to Nellie Nightingale and is on a concert tour of the world. She is followed by a train of admirers which include John Moiseff, Bud Seiter, and Alan Engell.

The local theatre was featuring a picture which starred Dorene Siebe and her leading man, Lloyd Sequeria—it is rumored that they are in love, but Dorene insists that she is happily married to Mickey Porovich.

Amy Uchimoto is now president of the Smithsonian Institute and her former husband, George Yoshioka, is now happily married to Misao Takimoto.

Maybelle Wong is a famous Bubble Dancer in Forbidden City, and has just been divorced from her sixth husband, Jimmy Low.

Gilmer Richardson, "Roving Romeo," is now selling automobiles by profession, but is selling bicycles to make a living. Everyone was surprised when he broke his engagement with Ruby Eaton and married Angie Bonifacio.

Doris Anderson, Dorothy Jilson, and Lucille Turnow, are now singing with Maestro Bill Downey's famous Casa Man-ana's orchestra. Downey's band was recently acclaimed the top band of the nation in a poll conducted throughout the Ozark area. Elaine Chadbourne is featured drummer with the orchestra. She gave up her home life with Dale Anderson for a career.

After many years of hardship and worry, Guido Colla and his wife, Lucy, have at last raised their own baseball team. The team is known as the Antioch Annie's—you see all their children turned out to be girls instead of boys. I do hope Guido and Lucy have better luck on the football team they're starting this year.

Kathleen Charley has become a famous lawyer. Her practice extends from Fairfield to Suisun. Margaret Otsuji and Yemiko Nishimura are both raising tomatoes. Margaret's husband, Eddie Iwao, left her; but Yemiko is happily married to Roy Nakamura.

Atau Mori is married to Elsie Sakuma and their children have all turned out to be Quiz Kids. Susumu Mitoma is a confirmed bachelor. He struck gold just out of town near Tolenas Flats.

Roland Ellsworth is pretty blue these days since Delores Jorden broke her engagement with him and she is reported secretly married to George Salsman who runs the town's leading florist shop.

Terry Hoshizaki and Roy Okahara are on the stage—a leading vaudeville act. Roy tells the jokes and Terry hauls down the curtain.

Chairman Olsen has not been able to find herself a husband so she is now the only policewoman who rides a motorcycle and carries a net.

June Perry and Katherine Stell have started a trucking company. And June drives their only truck. They plan to expand as soon as Stella Ware, the congresswoman agrees to lift the ban on sale of tires.

The famous novelist, Louise Morris, author of the year's best seller, "Adam and" ended her brilliant career by committing suicide in her Tolenas Mansion when George McGinnis ran away to join the navy.

Humor

Well, folks, seeing as how we've no more imagination than a mirror, and it is a pretty "drizmal" life, we'll use what luck we have and hope you just get a "mirthquake" of laughter out of this page.

The jokes hereon are both original and copied, and should be treated as such. If you fail to get the point of these jokes, we will, on request, furnish you with a generous amount of pins, needles, tacks, etc., etc.
